EAST ALMA

The Ladies Aid fair in the basement of Eastminster chapel netted about $100.00. Mrs. Cole, treasurer, has placed $40.00 to the Seating fund.
 This will clear off the indebtedness on this account.

The meeting of the Parents-Teachers' club in Republic school was a splendid success. The large upper room was well filled with an appreciative audience. The songs by the children also the drills were well done. Dr. Randells talk was good.
 The benefits of "Play" was the subject. The Tolstoi story by Miss Conyne on "What Men Live By" was listened to with great attention.

Eastminster chapel is to have a men's social on the day after Thanksgiving, Friday, November 28.
